Comments

“ To the Family of Dale, so very sorry for this loss. Death always saddens, but when it happens to someone so young it is particularly tragic. My thoughts and prayers are with your Family. May the love from your family and friends provide you with a measure of comfort during this difficult time. I pray also that the thoughts given to us all at Job 14:14,15 provide you with assurance that Dale is in God's memory.
