“ My condolences to Ron's family. As fellow clergy, I remember Ron at many events while he pastored in the Fox Valley Association of the Illinois Conference of the United Church of Christ. He had a heart for youth. He cared for all. He now has the joy of Eternal Rest. Rev. Susan Tyrrel

“ Ron (or Mr. Ron to my boys) was my next door neighbor here in Woodstock. I spent many afternoons chatting with him on his porch listening to his stories and learning about his life and family. He especially enjoyed talking about his Betsy Ross flag! I will cherish the memories of our chats. I am blessed God had us be neighbors. Yvonne Morrison

“ Reverend Ron cared for his flock like no one I've met since. His love for children was a shining light at the church when we attended. As a single Mom, participation in the choir, midnight services and the rummage sale were available to me because of his willingness to open the doors (and couch) of his office for rambunctious and sleepy children. My first full time job came through him via his lovey daughter Debbie. My family will always have the fondest memories of UCC Huntley, in large part due to Reverend Ron. RIP dear man. “ Ron allowed me to work with him in leading the First Congregational church as the Associate Pastor. When Ron needed some time off he put me in charge as a Licsened Lay Minister. Ron helped me become who I am now. When we moved to Las Vegas, NV I was able to become a Commissioned Lay Pastor in the Presbytery of Nevada, and Grace Presbyterian Church. Thank you Ron, you helped me find a calling within the religious society. For that I am Greatful! I look forward to our reconnection in heaven. Blessings on you for your work and on your family. We remember our trips to Wisconsin and the fun we had eating at the great resaurants on the pennsula, and the Pastor's house rented. "If it is brown flush it down. If it is yellow let it mellow". Ah the joys of country plumbing!!!

“ Ron and Cora were true friends and my wife, Carol and I had many laughs and good times with these 2 wonderful people. Carol and I extend our condolences to the family. People like the Woodruffs only come along once in a life if we are lucky. I treasure them in my heart. Terry & Carol Samer

“ Ron married my oldest daughter, baptized two of my nephews, one great nephew and my granddaughter, Courtney all in the same service. He had a special way of making me feel part of a great big family. I especially loved the way he catered to the children and let them know how important they were to the Church. He will be greatly missed. Up until a few years ago he was still sending Courtney birthday cards every year. My condolences to his family and may they share their favorite memories during this time.

“ Rev Ron was one the best ministers that we could have had. Both my boys were in the youth group and my daughter in-law all were in the youth group and attended the work camp. Ron and I were also went on several of the work camps and I have some many of great memories. I would also take the kids with Ron to Great America. He confirmed Scott and Mark and married both of them. I will always remember what a great minister and person he was. God bless you Ron
