“ My Aunt Adeline was a person who cared. I could tell she cared about me every time we talked and saw one another. There was never a doubt in my mind that she was sincerely interested, and wanted the best for me in life. Of course there was the occasional cheek pinch, but that's just part of the love. I love you Aunt Adeline. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ Sometimes we know people all our lives....and never really know them. Others like Adeline we meet for a fleeting moment and take away memories that last a life time. We will always remember her gentile spirit, her kindness, and her smile. We all leave memories behind us when we go, some good and some bad. I think the good Lord allows some people to know each other just long enough to have only good and fond memories. In the short time we shared together, she made me feel happy. She made me feel good about myself with her compliments, and she accepted me without condition....The world can learn from people like Adeline. She may be gone, bur her legacy lives in her children, in my good friend Chuck. God bless you my dear sister, and share your kindness and your smiles with Jesus.....
