

Barbara J. Chomko

January 3, 1944 - November 17, 2023

Barbara J. Chomko, 79, of Huntley, passed away Friday evening, November 17, 2023, at her home surrounded by family.

She was born January 3, 1944, in Chicago, the daughter of James and Bernice (Studzinski) Means.

She is survived by her children, Rob (Susan) Chomko, Jennifer (Joe) Toedt, Terra (Peter) Jahns, Rik (Julie) Chomko, and Roy (Katie) Chomko; eleven grandchildren, Brandon, Lindsey, Kaylea, Erik, Max, Nick, Erik, Angela, Ellie, Brooke, and Luke; five great grandchildren, Julian, Jada, Colton, Jordan, and Caleb; sisters, Joyce (Dave) Parney, and Vivian (Larry) Howard.

She is preceded in death by her grandson Ben, parents, and nephew Jimmy. Grandma Barbie / Gigi loved golf, racquetball, bowling, pickleball, playing cards, dancing, knitting, and creating Xmas crafts for her family. She loved hosting all the holidays where she would make her legendary pies and cheesecakes. Barbara worked her way up the corporate ladder becoming an IT Help Desk manager for Rush Hospital. One of her greatest accomplishments was earning a college Degree by attending in person night school for four years. Barbie never missed a family event or milestone. She loved being surrounded by her extended family.

A Celebration of Life will be held on December 30, 2023, 5-9 PM at Maggiano's, 901 E. Woodfield Rd., Schaumburg, IL 60173.

In lieu of flowers, memorials in Barbara's name may be directed to the American Cancer Society or the Anthony Rizzo Family Foundation.

“ Barbara and I shared an apartment in Punta Gorda, Florida in 2012 and had a wonderful month together. She made me a beautiful picture album with memories of our trip. I will treasure it always.
