“ Ray, I remember going to the reartaurat when you and I were six years old. I miss the very thought of your beautiful and knowledgeable mother. She was a ray of sunshine and happiness everyday where she went. I will, truly, miss the thought of her. Ray, you were lucky to have such a wonderful mother.😂

“ I will never forget Beverly. She not only was my boss but sometimes like a mother to me. She certainly was an inspiration. I can still see her husband Ray sitting on the stool at the counter, or her dad Charlie. Those raw burgers that Charlie used to eat....and of course Raymie as we used to call her son. Bev made the restaurant more than just a restaurant. It was a family restaurant and a great place to work. I will miss her.
