

Cape Christopher Hasselgren

September 21, 1965 - September 16, 2022

Cape Hasselgren of Marengo, passed away peacefully in his sleep Friday morning, September 16, 2022.

Cape was born in Houston Texas and moved to Illinois with his family when he was young. He grew up with a love for the outdoors and a passion for working on cars which he was able to turn into a career. He was adventurous and loved skiing so much that he decided to move to Colorado. With his passion for the outdoors his move to Colorado allowed him the ability to go skiing, ride snowmobiles, go fishing and boating anytime he desired. He moved back to the Midwest 5 years ago to be close to his family and resided in Marengo, Illinois. Cape's constant companion was his golden doodle Ruby which he adored and she was with him on all of his adventures.

Cape is survived by his father, Lars; his sister, Heidi Hasselgren; brothers, Gavin Hasselgren (Annie), and Erin Hasselgren (Lynette); niece's, Adelia, and Clara Hasselgren; and nephew's, Quinn, Finn, and Ian Hasselgren.

Cape is preceded in death by his mother, Wynne Hasselgren.

In lieu of flowers, Memorial contributions in his name may be directed to the Animal House Shelter 13005 Ernesti Rd. Huntley, Il. 60142.

Memorial Service will be held at a later date.
