“ I'm very sorry for your loss. The obituary didn't mention it but Conrad must have lived in the Brownsville/Allison Pa area as a teen. He and my father (Jim Cramer) were good friends and he spoke of him often. My Aunt Eleanor also remembers him well and I'll share the obituary with her. You have my deepest sympathy. Jim Cramer

Mushy, you & Grandpap were a part of my life since I married into the family. Even though I divorced your son, you NEVER became my EX in-laws! This picture is from when you came to Tennessee and spent a week at my home. My husband opened his home to not only you & Grandpap, but also to my ex-husband, (Lynn Ashkettle). It was wonderful to have Grandpap, Lynn, Kenny & some other people my oldest son, (Kenneth Lynn Ashkettle) invited, to be together and play music. Grandpap was an amazing person, & you taught me a lot of things as I was still growing up when I married Lynn. I couldn't come to Chicago, but my heart was & is with you! May God keep you in His arms as you go through the process of learning to go forward without him! I've loved both of you for almost 50 years and will continue to love you for the rest of my life! Thank you for all you did, to help me become a woman. I'm proud to continue using Ashkettle as my middle name. I love you with all my heart! Y-Vonna
