“ On behalf of The Harvard Sportman's, we would like to extend our deepest sympathies, thoughts and prayers to Dennis's children and family. Dennis was well known in the club for his jovial personality. You would often see him down at the lake fishing with friends and having a few beers. He will be sorely missed, especially by his closest friends. Rest in peace my friend and may the fish always be biting.

“ Several years ago Rob and Deb invited us to have Christmas Eve dinner with their family and Uncle Dennis. It was the first time we had the chance to sit and converse in a small setting with him. We had a wonderful time and hoped we could have the opportunity to visit with him again. Rob and Deb held him in high esteem and we agreed. We will miss having that opportunity. Our heartfelt condolences go out to all who love him.
