“ Beautiful Evelyn, we shared some good times and always laughed together! I will also never forget some personal advice you gave me that worked like a charm! We shared a love for everything pretty and sparkly and I always complimented you on your hair, nails and lipstick, saying you looked like a movie star (which you loved to hear).

With that being said, I hope you have a star with your name on it and all beautiful pink things waiting for you in Heaven!

I will miss you.
