“ Sincere condolences to the entire Tonkovich family. Uncle Frank was a light and now his beautiful light will shine down on all his loved ones and he will never be too far away. He always arrived with a smile and a joke and his laughter was sincere and contagious. He was a good human being who deeply loved his wife and family. The world will miss your kindness Uncle Frank because we all need more of your beautiful gifts. A simple, kind and gentle man of greatness. Rest in Peace dear uncle Frank, until we meet again on the other side. We love you & will miss you, Debbie & John Sebek
