“ Time takes all but memories. Uncle Fred left us with lots of fond memories. He loved having fun and was a trickster. When I would be playing in the barn on the farm, hay hooks would come down from the ceiling and truck lights would begin to flash on and off. Now, who could that have been having fun trying to scare me? There are many more memories, too many to list. His smile and laugh will remain with us forever. We loved you Uncle Fred! We too will miss him! We pray that God gives you strength through this difficult time, and leaves you with all of the wonderful memories too.
