“ Larry and I both so very sad to hear of Keith’s passing. Have missed him calling or coming to visit us in Fl. The last couple of years. When he would stay overnight with us, I could always count on home going to bed with the chickens and getting up around 4-4:30 am to be fully dressed , boots,hat and pacing around and around and around the pool til we finally got up. Larry and he worked together for years with Ryan.so many great memories of Keith. We will miss him.Larry and Dianne Hughes

“ Sending my condolences to Keith and Vivians family they are together now. I miss him everyday he would walk down our street and always visit! If someone came over to my house he would come over and make sure I was safe. He surprised me with his grand children and great grand children because I would come home and they would be out by my fence petting the horses! I'm glad they could enjoy my horses!
