“ Aunt Marie was one of the most loving people I knew. She always wanted everyone to get along and put things aside. She was the most organized people I've ever met and only recently found out how truly organized she was. I've always loved my memories of holidays together, growing up close to her and Uncle Donny and the relationship with my cousins. Families divide but I had the fortune to be there at the end and gave all my love to everyone. Our elders are moving on and so our the stories of times long ago. I am blessed to have had Aunt Marie in my life. She will be missed. Rest in peace and have fun at those card games with Uncle Donny, Aunt MaryJane, Rusty and Peggy. See you on the other side.
