“ Mary was truly one of the nicest persons I have ever known. She will be missed by all who knew her. She thought she could tell my identical twin sister and me apart, but she couldn't. That secret was kept just between my sister and me. God did, indeed, welcome this wonderful soul into heaven.

“ Mary Lou has always been a gracious lady. As a small child I admired her 'look', and I decided when I would become an adult I wanted the same 'look'. I've tried to repeat her example set years ago. Recently, I took her hand and told her my story and cried, stating how i adored her. She was embarrassed and smiled and said 'you've succeeded. I can only hope to pass this aura onto perhaps another Lil girl to repeat Mary lou's legacy.
