Patricia Ann McMahon of Chana, IL, formerly a longtime resident of Huntley, passed away on February 28, 2022, in the comfort of her home.

Jim and Pat were known for their pristine gardens and the house they made a home on Harmony Road. Pat was a master of all things in the kitchen, especially the family Polish favorites, kluskis, and pierogis. She was always quick to throw together an amazing meal at the drop of a hat for family and friends. But don't bother asking for a recipe because they were all measured by handfuls, pinches, dashes, and to taste not easily mastered by anyone other than her. She loved a big family meal. Pat was known by many for her beautiful hand-crafted rosaries from her own canna and job's tears plants. Priding herself on the story behind them and successful completion of the family project. Not only did she make beautiful rosaries but would pray her rosary for any just cause including but not limited to grad school applications, swift healing, licensure exams, surgeries, new jobs, sporting events, babies, health, and wellbeing for all her loved ones. Pat was known for her driven work ethic that has been passed down 3 generations and will continue to live on. The McMahon boss has now been deemed to Her good boy of 16 years, Max, who will continue to boss everyone around and bark til he gets what he wants.

Pat is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Jim; her brother, John; her daughter, Teresa; and her beloved dog, Molly.

Saying her rosary and praying brought her peace and comfort til the end, passing along her faith to the surviving generations.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting monetary donations to St. Mary Church to purchase a gift for the Adoration Chapel.

I pray the Lord my soul to keep
