“ Peter and I have been friends since I moved to Del Webb. We spent many good times together, laughing, dancing, and talking on the telephone almost every day. He called me “Dr. Phil,” but, really, he was my Dr. Phil. We could talk about anything. I will truly miss him. When I moved here, he helped me buy and set up my computer and my TV. He was my personal Geek Squad. We drove to Willowbrook Ballroom together. Peter loved ballroom dancing. His big regret when he got sick was that he couldn’t make it back to the dance floor. He made many friends within the dance community. You should know that everyone had wonderful things to say about Pete.

I met Peter about 44 years ago when I worked at Century in Lombard with his brother Marcel. Pete managed the Mt. Prospect store. Later when he opened his business, we met again at American International Tile where I was working then. More years later we both lost our loving spouses and we bumped into each other at Willowbrook where we had many dances and even more laughs. He had such an "UP" attitude. He was so proud of his daughters and son and their families. Through the years we met at different places and times, and we will meet again up above and have another dance. GOD BLESS YOU DEAR FRIEND.

I met Peter at Willowbrook. He was such an upbeat guy and fun to dance with. I also remember when Willowbrook burned down and we all went to Ballroom City for a few months until Teddy Lee got going at Glendora. Peter never missed a Sunday during that time. You could always count on him for a dance.

I wish I would have called him more often this past year. He was always matter of fact about his cancer. I will miss him.

I, also, met Peter at Willowbrook and I would have a dance set with him, if his dance card wasn't all filled out. I was so sorry he wasn't able to come dancing on Sundays anymore due to his illness. Want you to know he was a perfect gentleman.
