“ Seeing these pictures of Red and Mary remind me of the many ways in which they enjoyed life together. As his older sister-in-law he was always welcoming to me whenever we got together. I appreciated sharing some Christmas times with him during my studies in Indiana. Rest in well deserved peace, Red. You are in God’s hands.

“ My Dear brother Red aka “Uncle Feet “, I will miss your incredibly clever family stories, with which you were able to keep us in stitches. You were so like Dad as he was telling his stories when he was “holding court “. You had an amazing ability to spin our family sagas that could bring me back to the exact time and place, which always made me relive them. After Taylor was born I nicknamed you “Uncle Feet”since you were always playing with his feet. I will always remember your humor and the warmth you showed me and I will never forget your Hunka,Hunka Burning Love dance. We will miss you and you will always be in our hearts.

Your loving sister Kearney and Taylor (your godson)

I made this "Friar Tuck" costume for my nephew's halloween wedding. He has such a smile. We had a great time that day.

“ When I think about my brother the first thing that comes to mind is his perfect rendition of Elvis Presleys “Burning Love” I am certain anyone who knew Red, can picture this. You might not know but Red was an awesome athlete who loved golfing, swimming and of course dancing. I have lost two brothers Mark and now Red. I know they are reunited with my parents and my husband Bill to rest in the arms of Our Lord. Rest in peace Red, I really miss our daily calls.
With all my love, Mary Pat
