“ Ronnie took me in as family when I became close to his niece and her family.

I will never forget his humor, and his selflessness.

Ronnie was truly an amazing soul and he will be forever missed.

Both him and his wife and his children are family to me and I am all the better for having know him.

May he rest in paradise!!!

“ There's not enough space here to post my memories , there are so so many, we had great times over the last 30yrs. But will share my last memoray that I will cherish. It was a week before Ronnie moved on to the big highway in the sky..We both said I love you big guy that's how we always ended our calls and we talked almost on a daily basic. We will truly miss you big guy💖💖
