

Thomas P. Karambelas

December 15, 1969 - September 10, 2013

Thomas P. Karambelas, 43, of St. Charles, now at rest.

Loving son of Peter S. Karambelas and Dorothy (Ray) Dobson; beloved brother of William P. Karambelas. Also survived by his precious grandmother, Marie Soss, who has a special place in her heart for Tommy. Fond grandson of the late Sam and Anna Karambelas and Ed Soss. Loving nephew of Sam and Lupe Karambelas, Sandy (Ed) Speck, Arnold (Barbara) Soss and Art (Diane) Soss. Dear friend of many cousins.

Tom had a yellow lab, Pepperchini, who he adored and was his constant companion. Tom and his partner worked in the food industry business and their specialty was doing week-end festivals throughout the Chicagoland area (eg. The Naperville Rib Fest). Tom was constantly thinking of ideas and ways to improve his business with new products, novelty ideas, etc. He was an innovator. Because of his big heart, he was well liked and respected by his employees,

Visitation will be on Tuesday, September 17, 2013 at Faith Community Church, 10547 Faiths Way, Huntley from 1:00 pm until the 5:00pm Memorial Service with Pastor Bruce Cole officiating.

The family requests no Flowers.
