“ I remember one family birthday party many years ago when the cake was not as good as your mom thought it should be so she had us all sign a letter or something to give to the bakery to express our dissatisfaction. It was so cute how she got reacted to the whole cake thing. And who could forget "Scola, scola scola" (or however it's spelled!). So many good times with her & your family. John & I will miss her. What a wonderful woman!
